Holyoke here to-day—weather permitting.
Captain Ladd's team is due in Hartford to-morrow to take a fall out of the leaders.

Next home game Friday when the Senators make their appearance.
Bannon's hitting is not only consistent but also timely. That in the fifth yesterday settled the game yesterday.

The New Haven players and George Bannon do not get on in the best possible way. In Monday morning's game Connell and Bone were continually nagging Bannon, but the left fielder generally came out on top. He quieted Bone by telling him to get a pall of whitewash and look like a white man. The Raven manager was fit to be tied.

Catcher Carrigan of the Boston Americans has been sent home, gangrene poisoning having set in on his injured leg, which was spiked two weeks ago. He will be laid up for several weeks. Carrigan is a brother of Jack Carrigan who played halfback on the Bridgeport polo team for the last two seasons.

"RED" WALLER IS WITH JERSEY CITY

"Red" Waller because he has refused to sign up with St. Louis to which team he was turned over by the Giants has been farmed out to the Jersey City Eastern league team. "Red" pitched against Newark on Decoration day but lost his game, being opposed by "Iron Man" McGinnity. Red gave the "Sneakers" seven hits, while the "Iron Man" allowed eight. The final score stood 5-1.

ENTRIES FOR CHARTER OAK $10,000 STAKES
(Special from United Press.)
Hartford, June 2.—Twenty-seven of the performers of the grand circuit were registered to-day with Secretary W. J. Snyder to play for the famous Charter Oak $10,000 stakes. Ed Geers is on hand with two, Tassel and The Harvester; T. W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., has McGee and later Garde and Hubinger stable will depend upon Marchant. The stakes closed with 15 entries.

ORATORS' LONE TALLY WAS A "SUFFICIENCY"

New Britains Were Ciphored in Interesting Game at Newfield.

Some of that luck which placed Hartford at the top of the league pursued Bridgeport yesterday afternoon at Newfield Park, New Britain getting the small end of the deal in an exciting game which finished up 1 to 0. Gibbs essayed the stellar role for the Orators and did finely. The fielding of Frank Hill at times sent chills down the spines of the loyal fans, but something always happened right after the misplay that relieved all danger. Frank slipped up twice in succession in one inning, but the other men on the team dug us out of the hole. Hickey, the man Manager Hanna secured from the Toronto Eastern leaguers opposed us. His delivery was very peculiar to the local batsmen, six of whom struck out in the first three innings.

But Mr. Hickey could not keep up the pace for we got to him for the lone tally of the game in the fifth. Kocher led off with a ripping single to right. Gibbs dropped a beauty in front of the plate, on which Kocher went to second, Gibbs going out at first. Steinhäuser struck out, but Geo. Bannon was on hand with a timely rap to left on which Kocher scored. The run being earned. The visitors had two on in the third on an error of Hill and a base on balls but could do nothing.

George Bannon was the robbery kid in the fourth. Cabrera lined one way out to deep left to which George turned his back, facing the field in time to smear the ball. Spring after Burns had singled laced a Texas leaguer over short stop on which George ran in so fast, that he only stopped when he reached first base. There were two on the bases for the Cubes with one down in the fifth, on two hits when Miller grabbed the ground ball and touched third and then picked the ball out of the air on McCabe's liner. Cabrera second up in the sixth lined center for a bag. Burns struck out and on the third strike Cabrera tried for second, but Kocher nailed him at second completing a pretty double play.

In the seventh with one out Miller pulled Hickey's nasty boulder off the third bag and threw high to first but McKenna with a great leap pulled the sphere down with his bare hand in time to catch the runner. Hill followed this sensation with two fumbles that placed men on first and second. Miller nailed Gastmeyer's wallop and threw him out at first. Things looked prosperous for a score for the visitors in the ninth after McCabe had reached center with a single. Hickey down. With Mason at the bat Kocher missed a thrown ball, the sphere going behind him. McCabe attempted to come in on the skip, but Gibbs ran in from pitcher's box getting the return from Kocher in time to nail McCabe. After this play the visitors saw their way in chance of scoring with things breaking that way for them, but they died game. The score:

BANNON BEST BUMPER

Home Team Gingering up Since Ladd Took the Helm.

George Bannon is still the clouting kid for the Orators, hitting for an average of .320. This includes yesterday's game. "Rube" Pollard, however, is the nominal leader with the average of .412. Rube has played in only seven games, his last with three hits out of three times at bat giving him an average a raise. All the other members on the team have shown a marked improvement, some of them having increased their percentage considerably, this is no doubt due to the ginger installed into the team since Ladd has been appointed captain. The averages:

| A. B. H. P. C. | |
|----------------|------|
| Pollard | .412 |
| Bannon | .320 |
| Hill | .279 |
| Tommer | .268 |
| Ladd | .263 |
| Miller | .255 |
| Gibbs | .231 |
| McKenna | .224 |
| Steinhäuser | .216 |
| McCarthy | .210 |
| Bourquin | .180 |
| Kocher | .127 |

NOTES ABOUT THE FIGHTERS

Boston, Mass., June 2.—Tommy Murphy, the clever Gothamite, gave Matty Baldwin, of this city, a terrible drubbing in their twelve-round battle held last night before the Armory A. A. Murphy pounded Baldwin so steadily during the entire fray that in the final mixing he had the latter in such pitiable shape that he could not have lasted through another round.
